

INC Our Thirtieth Year of Service

Dollar Dictionary Needs RNO Help

We are reaching out to all registered neighborhood organizations in Denver to help with a financial shortfall in the 2008 Dollar Dictionary project. Contributions are down considerably this year and we are currently $3,000.00 dollars short of meeting our expenses.

There are well over 200 RNOs in the city and we ask each and every one to consider helping with this great project. For thirteen years we have provided free dictionaries and thesauruses to every third-grader in Denver Public Schools. We have given the books as a gift from the neighborhoods surrounding our schools. We have placed your RNO name, as a contributor of these helpful student tools, on a label in the front of each book.

Dear Inter-Neighborhood Group,

Thank-you for giving us our Dictionaries and Thesarus. I'm so happy that we get to take them home at the end of the school year. I'm happy that Mrs. Stanek is going to teach us how to use it. and you people are really nice to. thank-you for coming on Monday. and teaching us what volunteer means. I remember that volunteer mean you just do something no-body asked you to do it for them. then you gave us a little fun paper to do and I liked doing. I wish you can com next year to but I won't see you next year because I will be in forth grade next year.

Sensely,
Danaya

Is the name of your RNO missing from the above?

We have received generous grants from The League of Women Voters and The Denver Kiwanis Foundation. Businesses making donations this year are: Casey's Construction, Denver Community Service Fund, Joy Wine and Spirits, Harmes C. Fishback Foundation Trust, and Mountain Shadows Condominiums. Two hundred concerned individuals have made donations as well. Among them are the following community leaders: all INC Executive Committee members, Carol Boigon, Sarah Bradley, Cathy Donohue, Marcia Johnson, Peggy Lehman, Cathy Reynolds, Jeanne Robb, and a host of dedicated RNO officers from across the city.

Donations are welcome from everyone (and needed) and can be made to: Dollar Dictionary Drive, P.O. Box 81347, Denver, CO 80218. Donations can also be made online at
